

DISTANCE EDUCATION ACCREDITING COMMISSION

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT DISCLOSURE FOR THE PUBLIC

DEAC accredited institutions offer a broad array of instructional programs and student support services to meet varied educational and professional goals of a highly diverse student population. Institutions determine appropriate performance criteria to measure the success of their students in achieving their goals in the context of the institution's specific mission and scope. You will find below (1) a summary of how this institution measures student achievement in the context of the institution's mission and educational programs, and (2) student achievement metrics which the institution believes best reflect student and program performance. For more information about DEAC standards and requirements, please visit www.deac.org.

This information was prepared by Rhombus University and published on its website on November 2, 2022

Summary of Institution Mission and Student Achievement

Rhombus University seeks to develop biblically-minded professionals to strengthen and equip individuals, families, and communities through a high-quality, online education. Students and Faculty will use the school as a platform and support system for connecting with local churches and agencies, developing strategies to meet the needs of the community. Student achievement is measured through graduation rates, licensure pass rates, demographic information, and employment surveys.

Aggregated Institutional Data on Student Achievement

Since Rhombus University's first student enrolled in 2019, one student has completed the program and successfully received associate licenses AMFT and APCC.

Program	Current # of Students	Graduates	Graduation Rate
MACP	9	1	100%